

THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH
College of Social Work

Dixon Girls Forums

PRACTICUM STUDENT INTEREST FORM

Only available to students currently placed in school-based practicum

Application Deadline for fall: September 18, 2020 | Application deadline for spring: February 5, 2021

Thank you for your interest in incorporating the Dixon Girls Forums into your school practicum placement. This University of Utah College of Social Work program provides young women with fun, age-appropriate, engaging, in-school programming focusing on self-esteem, skill-development, mentoring, and leadership. Due to limited funding, this is a competitive application process.

This practicum experience provides an opportunity for students to conduct research, develop curriculum, plan events, and to present on your experiences. Please speak to the elements that appeal to you and why they interest you.

This opportunity also includes funding support—$1,000/semester in experiential scholarship dollars for the student and a $500 budget for the student to manage for their school. Please share some preliminary ideas on how you might allocate your $500 school budget.

After completing this form, please save it to your computer and send a copy to the Practicum office:

- MSW students, please email this completed form to Emily Bleyl (Emily.Bleyl@utah.edu)
