In this film, two Native American judges reach back to traditional concepts of justice in order to reduce incarceration rates, foster greater safety for their communities, and create a more positive future for their youth.

A discussion will follow the film presentation. Panelists include:

Stephanie Benally Native American Specialist at Utah Foster Care

Elizabeth Kronk Warner Dean and Professor of Law at the S.J. Quinney College of Law at the University of Utah

Judge William Thorne former Third Circuit Court Judge

Dr. Connor Warner Associate Professor/Clinical, Urban Institute for Teacher Education

To protect our communities, masks are strongly encouraged in all University buildings regardless of vaccination status.
