

The University of Utah College of Social Work Presents

Pride or Prejudice: Challenging Assumptions Around Aging

Part of the Grand Challenges for Social Work
Lecture Series

Tuesday, November 19, 2024

12:00 pm - 1:30 pm (MST)

Online via Zoom
(Zoom link provided prior to event)

Forgetful, irrelevant, awkward?
Or wise, experienced, and resilient?

Ageism—or age-based bias—is pervasive and can have significant impacts on individuals. During this presentation, Anne Asman, a gerontologist with the Huntsman Mental Health Institute, will explain how ageism negatively impacts our health and well-being, dispel myths about aging, and discuss ways to help challenge and change the narrative around aging.

Free and open to the public
Pre-registration required: socialwork.utah.edu/events

1.5 Free NASW-endorsed social work CEUs (anticipated)
Please direct questions to: danielle.thomsen@utah.edu